

Public Comment: FCC Proceeding 13-86

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards. The FCC must continue to vigorously oppose ALL indecent content, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has affirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies prohibiting indecent broadcast content during hours when children are likely to be in the viewing or listening audience. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest.

I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

I'm a mother and grandmother.

JUL 23 2013

I'm watching T.V. ^{FCC Mail Room} carefully because of my 14th grand daughter. (Really I have 3, but I also worked with kids in church). Our girls are battling with confusion, lack of confidence and sexuality. They are being shown how important it is to be sexual, beautiful, powerful (Karate), smart mouthed with the men, and they don't feel they fit in this world.

T.V. for many people is their church. They don't go to church any more so their morals are coming from T.V. Learning how to survive is coming from T.V.

Ms. Dortch, we need your help. Will you care like Mr. Derachowski before he retired? Will you help us and our kids? Hollywood only wants to sell us out. They want money, power and their standards.

Will you just shut us ^{No. of Copies rec'd} ^{List ABCDE} ~~letter~~ away? Please help us.

I find it the Utmost Appalling and Utmost EGREGIOUS that the FCC has failed and even refused to enforce broadcast decency laws. I expect more and stricter enforcement of broadcast decency laws, not less. I strenuously object to the current level of indecent content that has resulted from the FCC's failure to enforce decency standards.
